

OVER THE HEDGE

Characterisation

Match the personality traits in the box below to the characters from the film Over The Hedge.

scheming
grumpy dramatic energetic caring charming proud hyperactive

hardworking angry carefree enthusiastic stubborn theatrical insecure

Blank lined paper for notes.

Blank lined paper for notes.

Blank lined paper for notes.

Blank lined paper for notes.

Blank lined paper for notes.

Learning Objective:

To compare character personalities (Literacy)

Comparing Settings

Compare and contrast the two settings below by identifying objects and features unique to that environment. Circle these features and annotate them to describe why they are unique.

Learning Objective:

To compare and contrast settings (Literacy)

©2006 Film Education, Over The Hedge TM & ©2006 DreamWorks Animation, LLC. All Rights Reserved.

OVER THE HEDGE Animal Reactions

Imagine that you are Verne or one of the other woodland animals. You have woken from hibernation to find part of your home has been destroyed and in its place is a mysterious new environment. How do you feel?

Write an account of your reactions, thoughts and feelings in the space below.

Learning Objective:

Imaginative writing (Literacy)

©2006 Film Education, Over The Hedge TM & ©2006 DreamWorks Animation, LLC. All Rights Reserved.

OVER THE HEDGE Special Features

The animals in Over The Hedge all have their own special features. Read the animal facts in the box below and use these facts to complete the labels and captions attached to the animals.

- Shell - Has a hard shell
- Tail - Has a long scaly tail
- Ears - Has small ears with tufts of hair on the tips
- Spines - Has spines all over its back and sides
- Back - Has a white stripe down its back
- Smell - Can create a horrible smell
- Pouch - Has a fur-lined pouch
- Face - Has black patches on its face
- Head - Can hide its head

Blank lined writing area for notes related to the raccoon.

Blank lined writing area for notes related to the chipmunk.

Blank lined writing area for notes related to the turtle.

Blank lined writing area for notes related to the squirrel.

Blank lined writing area for notes related to the skunk.

Extension - Can you identify more features? Use the additional spaces to add some more.

Learning Objective:

Find out about animals and their characteristics (Science)