

A BIG CITY ADVENTURE

Rodney Copperbottom™ is a little robot with big ambitions. He dreams of becoming a great robot inventor like his idol Bigweld. Bigweld believes all robots are special and his motto is 'You can shine no matter what you are made of'. As he is made up of cast-off parts, Rodney believes his hero and goes to the big city to become a robot inventor.

However, Rodney's journey does not go as he planned and the big city is not as he imagined.

Before you see the film

Watch the trailer for Robots™ at www.robotsmovie.com. What do you think will happen to Rodney during his adventure? Imagine you are Rodney and write a letter to Mr. and Mrs. Copperbottom describing your journey, the things you have seen and the people you have met. Why is the city different to how you imagined it?
